

Here at FBC Manby
Bowdler the small print
is all about the attention to detail that we invest in all our clients. No matter how large or small, we make it our business to get to know you and your unique requirements
and only then do we deliver a big service
that is always focused on the small detail.

big bowdler!

All too often, law loses itself in its own complexities and the small things – the things that can make a real difference – get swallowed up by the bigger picture.

That's not to say that we've taken our eye off the bigger picture. It's just that we never forget that it's those little things which have made us what we are today.

This is where the story of FBC Manby Bowdler begins...

We could use these pages to wax lyrical about our passion for excellence, unwavering belief in quality, our unrivalled personal service or unquestionable talent.

But in a sector already plagued by arrogance and ego, you want to know what makes us different – what makes us stand out from the crowd.

So why work with us? After all, we're by no means the biggest, the flashiest or the cheapest. It's because we go that extra mile for our clients and they think that we're the best.

We haven't reached where we are today by standing still. FBC Manby Bowdler is continually evolving, constantly challenging itself, developing and expanding capability, improving quality, raising client and candidate expectation and always striving for excellence both professionally and personally.

Through this merger we're embarking on a journey of growth and improvement, with an emphasis on our clients and people, an even stronger sense of corporate responsibility and the further development of our national reach.

So while many might be tempted to rest on their laurels, telling anyone willing to listen how great they are, we aren't. We're doing something with the success we've each enjoyed to date and using it to take the new company onward and upwards, a journey on to new and exciting things.

We hope that you can join us.
